

Donor Privacy Policy

Austin Habitat for Humanity does not copy, reproduce, publish, post, distribute, share or sell the name or personal contact information of donors to any outside individual or business. Exceptions shall be those required by law, requested in grant applications or in connection with bank, credit or debit card transactions, which may be made without prior knowledge or consent of the donor.

Austin Habitat for Humanity does acknowledge donors by name and/or description of donation, in certain printed material such as chapter newsletters, brochures, press releases, event invitations or programs, stationery, solicitation letters, the organization's website or other means of expressing appreciation for the donors' assistance. A donor wishing to view samples of these publications may do so by contacting the organization at the address below.

Austin Habitat for Humanity will regularly provide a means for both new and continuing donors to inform the charity if they do not want their names acknowledged on any of the printed material mentioned above. All donations shall be treated individually so that multiple donations from a single donor shall receive the same consideration as if each were the first donation received.

If a donor chooses to opt out of any acknowledgement listings in printed material, the donor's name and address will be made available only to individuals associated with Austin Habitat for Humanity who are responsible for managing the business of the organization.

A copy of Austin Habitat for Humanity's Donor Privacy Policy will be sent to a donor upon request and is also available on Austin Habitat for Humanity's website. All records of donations to Austin Habitat for Humanity shall be securely maintained by the organization and kept in accordance with the applicable standards of record retention in effect at the time of the donation.

Austin Habitat for Humanity operates a ReStore. The same protections outlined above apply to all donors to the ReStore.

Austin Habitat for Humanity reserves the right to publish all photographs taken at any organizational event. Any individual's written request to Austin Habitat for Humanity, which requests photographs of said person not to be published, will be honored.
